

FEBRUARY 3, 1837.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House to which is committed the bill (H. R. No. 607) for the relief of John Oliver.

Mr. TALIAFERRO, from the Committee of Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of John Krepps.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2       of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3       the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized, and he is hereby 4       required, to cause a credit to be entered in favor of John Krepps 5       on the books of the Treasury for the sum of two thousand and 6       forty-nine dollars and fifteen cents, erroneously charged to John 7       Krepps for an alleged deficiency to that amount of work done
8       by him as contractor on the Cumberland road, under Josias
9       Thompson, superintendent; and if suit has been instituted by 10      the United States to recover from John Krepps the aforesaid sum 11      ascertained to have been erroneously charged to him on the books 12      of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause the 13      same to be dismissed, and to release the said John Krepps from 14      the effects thereof.

1       SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be
2       in force from the passage thereof.
